iUniverse, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 223 x 145 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In Battlelines, Lieutenant Colonel Dave Brown and his daughter, Tiffany, have captured the reality of war. Their chronicle of comradeship forged in the crucible of combat is a must-read for anyone who cares about soldiers, sailors, airmen, and Marines who fight our country's battles. -Oliver L. North, Lieutenant Colonel, USMC (Ret.) Battlelines. is a tribute to the brave Marines of Fox Company, 2/5, who fought in some of the sharpest battles of the war. I fought alongside Dave Brown and his Marines, and can attest to the courage and tenacity displayed by the men of Fox Company. -Martin L. Brandtner, Lieutenant General, USMC (Ret.) Battlelines is a superb memoir on human behavior and the raw emotions felt by those who must constantly face the dangers of either closing or defending that last 600 meters against an aggressive, determined, and often-unseen enemy. Implicit in the telling is a portrait of unsurpassed courage, steadfastness, and a sense of mutual affection for one another that can only be derived from men who find themselves together under fire. -O. K. Steele, Major General, USMC (Ret.).
