With the priests of Lower Egypt the chief hero was their own Shishank, who overthrew the family of Rameses, and made the unwilling Thebans carve his praise on the temple of Amun-Ka. And by putting together his actions and those of some others, and then spelling his name badly, Herodotus has created for us the great Sesostris. Diod. Sic., (25) Memphis was then at its greatest size; it had lib. i. 50. been jsing on the fall of Thebes, and with its citadel and suburbs had a circuit of one hundred and fifty stadia, or Herodotus, sixteen miles. The chief building, after lib. ii. 121. the citadel of...
