Excerpt: . . . 11 MEDICARE CHOICE Medicare Choice (M C) plans are finding it difficult to adjust to the BBA changes while maintaining the extra services they have provided to beneficiaries in the past. This is especially true for prescription drug coverage that is not available in the Medicare fee-for-service program and which many M C plans offer, but for which they do not receive specific payment from Medicare. Many M C plans were able to offer drug coverage and other extras because of excessive payments that were made to them before the BBA. However, since the BBA was enacted, costs of the extra benefits provided under many M C plans - particularly prescription drugs that are not offered in the Medi-care fee-for-service program - have increased much faster than spending for services in the Medicare fee-for-service program. Our success in holding down fee-for-service costs is due in part to BBA provisions and our fraud, waste, and abuse efforts, as well as other factors. Because payments to M C plans do not account for the costs...
