The original thirteen States, forming the Union, comprised an area of 892,135 square miles. Therafter, commencing with the Louisiana purchase in 1803, and continuing down to the recent (1917) purchase of the Danish Islands in the West Indies, the United States has been adding to its territory until the present time when the total area over which our sovereignty extends amounts to 3,743,448 square miles or more than four times the original area of the Union. By far the larger part of this added territory was acquired by peaceful cession and treaty, France, Spain and Russia being the largest contributors. The most of this teritory lies adjacent to our original boundaries, some of it within the nearby waters of the Caribbean Sea. The furthestmost limits of the great Alaskan tract, which lie within the Arctic Zone, are separated from Eastern Siberia by...
