TSO. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Preparing for Sporting Success at the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games and Beyond: Report by the Comptroller and Auditor General, Great Britain: National Audit Office, UK Sport has developed a strategy to achieve the Government's ambitions for the GB teams to finish fourth in the Olympic medal table and to maintain second in the Paralympics table at the London 2012 Games. The achievements of athletes at recent elite international events suggest performance levels are improving. This report from the National Audit Office identifies a number of risks to be managed if those ambitions are to be realized, in particular the fact that plans depend on raising GBP 100 million of funding from the private sector which has yet to be identified. Meeting the 2012 goals would require Team GB to double the number of gold Olympic medals that it won in Athens 2004. To achieve this, UK Sport and the Department for Culture, Media and Sport (DCMS) have agreed a GBP 700 million funding package, with nearly GBP 600 million for elite athletes. This funding comes from the taxpayer and the National Lottery plus the private sector money that still has to be...
